Securityholder Update

Asia Pacific Data Centre Group (APDC) is pleased to confirm that we have extended the Group's existing $29 million finance with Bankwest which was due to expire on 29 November 2018 to expire on 29 November 2019.

Upon request from the Board, management has conducted a strategic review of the Group's operations and positioning in the data centre market to grow the business and deliver sustainable returns to securityholders. We have referred to this review in greater detail in the Annual Results Presentation, also announced today.

We will continue to work diligently to maximise returns for all securityholders.
